

Curriculum vitae of Nándor Csepreghy

Nándor Csepreghy
Deputy State Secretary for Development Projects

Qualifications:

- |      |                                                                                                |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2008 | University degree in Communication and Public Relations, Faculty of Arts, University of Szeged |
| 1991 | University degree in History, Faculty of Arts, University of Szeged                            |

Professional experience:

- |           |                                                                                           |
|-----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2011–2012 | Head of Communications Department, spokesman, National Development Agency                 |
| 2011      | Training manager, Foundation of the Alliance for a Civic Hungary                          |
| 2008–2011 | Communications manager, Chamber of Bodyguards, Property Protection and Private Detectives |
| 2010      | Campaign chief, chief campaign adviser, parliamentary and local government elections      |
| 2010      | Chief campaign adviser, local government elections in Slovakia                            |
|           | Operative vice chair, Fidelitas                                                           |

Languages:

English and German