

Curriculum vitae of Imre Farkas

Imre Farkas
State Secretary

Place and date of birth:

Gyoma, 1968

Qualifications:

- Leningrad Military School of Cartography, qualified surveying engineer (1991)
- Budapest University of Technology and Economics, qualified geodesist, specialist in geographic information systems and cadastral registration

Professional experience:

October 2010 Chairman of the Estate Policy Council,
National Land Fund

June 2010 – 15 July 2012
State Secretary, Ministry of Rural Development

1998 – June 2010
Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Geodéziai Zrt.

2002 Acting Director of Land Management, Hungarian National Land Fund Public Benefit Company

1997–1998 Production Manager, and subsequently Chief Engineer for Quality Assurance, Hungarian Geodetic and Mapping
Company Limited

1991–1997 topography officer, evaluating field-officer,
Deputy Head and then Head of the Remote Sensing
Department, Ministry of Defence, Mapping Institute

Family status:

Married with two children

Language proficiency:

Advanced German and Russian

Speaks English